HAYTI, MISSOURI, THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 9, 1911.

NO. 1.

NEW LUMBER COMPANY.

The North Arkansas Lumber Company have purchased the Welsh Lumber Company's yards at Caruthersville and Hayti, and are now erecting a new shed on the corner of 3rd street and Bushy avenue in Caruthersville and intend to transfer their stock from their old site in that town to their new shed in a few weeks.

The North Arkansas Lumber Company is a new concern, with head offices at Paragould, Ark., and yards at Paragould, Walnut Ridge, Reector, Marmaduke, and Blytheville, Ark., and Hornersville, Caruthersville and Hayti, Mo. They are backed by the Crossett Lumber Company of Crossett, Ark., a large saw mill concern, manufacturing yellow pine lumber. The officers of the new company are: R. W. Barrick, St. Louis, president; A. Trieschmann, Crossett, Ark., vice-president, and L. M. Hawkins, Hayti, Mo., secretary and treasurer.

Mr. Hawkins, who has been manager of the Hayti branch of the Welsh Lumber Co., is in Caruthersville, looking after the erection of their new shed and transferring the stock, and will leave in the next few weeks to take charge of the Paragould yard.

Frank Barrick, a brother of the president, will be the local manager of the Hayti yard.

We are glad to see this strong organization formed, as it not only means permanency, but low prices.

Mr. Hawkins, who put in the business here, has made many friends, and while we regret to lose him as a citizen, we are glad to see him go higher up.

Mr. Barrick, who has been manager, has been here for some time, and of course will make good, as he is a young man of good business ability, and progressive.

Drs. Hudgings and Crowe, of Caruthersville attended to professional business in Hayti last Friday.

DOES ADVERTISING PAY?

The "Fair," a Chicago department store, recently took twenty pages in a Sunday edition of the Chicago Examiner, at a cost of $22,000. This would start a pretty good sized country store and is a large sum for even a great department store to spend at one time for advertising. The men in charge of the business, however, have faith in printer's ink, and know that their outlay will return many times the amount in increased business. It pays to advertise, but you must offer the public some inducements to visit your place of business, and then make good.

Badly Burned.

John Blaylock, son of Eld. J. M. Blaylock, of this city, was severely, and possibly, fatally, burned in the explosion of a curbid-lighting plant of the Caneer Store Co., at Senath, Wednesday night. The lights were flickering in the store and heard Blady Caneer went out to the plant, in a building in the rear of the store, to correct the defect. Blaylock opened the door, after lighting a match, and as he did so the explosion occurred. His clothing was set on fire and he was knocked down. He ran into the store and the fire was extinguished, but not until he had been badly burned all over his face, head, arms and body above the waist. Drs. Speidel and Hendley gave him immediate attention and have hopes of his recovery, though the case is a serious one. Young Caneer was not burned, being about eight feet from the door, when the explosion occurred.—Kennett Democrat.

Dr. W. Clyde Mitchell has changed his location in the employment of the government as meat inspector from the National Stock Yards at East St. Louis to the stock yards at Nashville, Tenn., and forwards the renewal for his subscription. Clyde is a native son of Hayti, and his many friends are pleased with the success he is making.

THE TRUTH IS ALWAYS BEST.

BURNING OF THE FRISCO DEPOT AT HAYTI, FEBRUARY 22.

The Frisco coal shed at Hayti, burned last week. A careless negro dropped a torch that ignited a lot of oil. Only a few months before, the Frisco depot there burned. A picture showing the population of the town posing on the platform for a picture, and but one man trying to put out the fire, made the Frisco people very weary—too weary to rebuild the depot.—Kennett Democrat.

This paper has always had a good word to say about Kennett and Kennett people, because they are our neighbors and our friends and we have no desire to wound their feelings or to injure their town. But the above, from the Kennett Democrat, very clearly shows the feeling of that paper towards Hayti, and it is clear to any reasonable mind that the statement was made to cast an unjust and uncalled-for reflection upon our city and upon the people.

Rev. J. B. Swanner and wife and son visited in Jonesboro, Ark., last week, and report a great time. Rev. Swanner at one time preached there, and his many friends were glad to see him.

The ladies of the M. E. church will give a Thanksgiving Supper on the public Square, the proceeds of which will be applied to the use and benefit of the church. Everybody cordially invited to attend.

At the time the picture was made, the fire was entirely beyond control, and the fire fighters had hardly left their posts. It will be seen from the picture that a gang of men are still using the hose upon the burning building, while of course to extinguish the flames was an impossibility, the entire inside being on fire and the ceiling falling in. But the last piece of furniture and fixture belonging to the building had at this time been removed and placed at a safe distance, and not a thing was lost.

The fire was caused by the accidental burning of two restaurant buildings just opposite the depot, the strong wind from the direction of the two buildings making it impossible for the fire-fighters to keep it from the depot.

How does this sound? There's the picture.

Mr. and Mrs. Atlee Jackson are the proud parents of a new girl, who arrived on Wednesday night of last week to make her home with them. Dr. Mayes was in attendance.

Oce Chism left Saturday morning by boat for Henderson, Ky., where he will make his future home. Mr. Chism was a good man and a good citizen, and we regret his departure.

Not here today and gone tomorrow, but here to stay. Peanuts and popcorn at the Candy Kitchen.

THURSDAY NIGHT.

The Great Passion Play, to be given at the City Hall to-night, by the ladies of the Baptist church for the benefit of the church. Rev. Swanner, pastor of the church will deliver the lecture on the life of Christ. Everybody is cordially invited to attend. Admission, 10 and 20 cts. Remember the date November 9, 1911.

F. M. Johnson and family of Terry, attended to business matters in this city Thursday, and while here Mr. Johnson renewed his subscription for another year.

LEWIS--THOMPSON.

Miles B. Lewis and Miss Nelle Thompson were married at the home of the bride last Sunday. Mr. Lewis is the son of Tom Lewis of Braggadocio, who is among our foremost citizens. Miles, as we all know him, has been in the moving picture show business for some time, but is now behind the counters at J. L. Dorris' store. Miss Thompson is the daughter of C. S. Thompson of Portageville, and is a beautiful and accomplished young lady. The young couple have the well-wishes of their many friends.
